A Journey Through Time and Space

Our journey begins in the bustling city of Exeter, where the main line from London Paddington once branched off to serve the vast network of branch lines that crisscrossed Devon. From here, we follow the Exe Valley Line through the picturesque countryside, passing charming villages and historic towns.

Venturing further into South Central Devon, we explore the forgotten lines that once served the Teign Valley and the Exe Estuary. Discover the stories of lost stations, abandoned viaducts, and the communities that once relied on these vital transport links.

Our journey culminates in East Devon, where we uncover the hidden gems of the Sidmouth and Seaton branches. These lines once carried holidaymakers to the seaside resorts of the Jurassic Coast, and their charm endures today as we explore their tranquil stations and stunning coastal views.
